

RESIDENCY STATUS

A status of qualification for its being rest on one's personal status so called Residency Qualification(Status) with no restrictions on employment. Like the Japanese people, this status of residence allows you to work in any job without restrictions.

No.	Name of VISA status	Explanations and examples	Length of Stay	Working
25	Permanent Resident - (EIJYU SYA)	This is a status of residence that can be obtained by foreigners who have been granted permanent residence permission. The conditions for obtaining this status are as follows: - Good behavior (obeying the law and living a life that is not criticized by society) - Sufficient assets or skills to live (including the assets and skills of your spouse) - Recognized as being in the interest of Japan As a rule, you must have resided in Japan for more than 10 years. If you have unpaid taxes or insurance premiums, your application is more likely to be denied.	No limitation	YES
26	Spouse or Child of Japanese National - (NIHONJIN NO HAIGUUSYA)	This applies to spouses, biological children, and special adopted children of Japanese nationals.	5 yrs., 3 yrs., 1 yr., 6 mons	YES
27	Spouse or Child of Permanent Resident - (EIJYUUSYA NO HAIGUUSYA)	This applies to spouses of permanent residents and special permanent residents, and biological children born in Japan who continue to reside there.	5 yrs., 3 yrs., 1 yr., 6 mons	YES
28	Long-Term Resident - (TEIJYUSYA)	This applies to third-generation Japanese, Japanese nationals remaining in China, and refugees resettled in third countries.	Any length, not exceeding 5 yrs.	YES